OHIO DIVIDEND RATE RAISED TO FORTY CENTS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Local stocks and bonds had very little movement on the Exchange at the regular session this morning, but the general tone of prices was steady. The sales were as follows: $2000 Southern Pacific Refunding 4s at $2.50; 20 Makaweli at $31.25, and 40 Spring Valley Water at $22. The last named stock showed notable strength in the face of the company's troubles.

Continued prosperity among the Hawaiian sugar companies was indicated today when the announcement was made that the Onomea Sugar Company has increased the rate of its monthly dividend to 40 cents per share beginning July 6. The previous rate was 30 cents.

ACCOUNTS APPROVED.

The accounts of James L. McLean as executor of the will of the late Mary Ann Gray were yesterday approved and he was given his discharge. Receipts for the distribution of the estate were filed for twenty-four shares of the stock of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company and the respective share of cash by each of those entitled to distribution—Caroline E. Godfrey, William H. McLean, James L. McLean, George Thomas McLean and Robert C. McLean.

MARINE

The recent trip of the Mongolia from San Francisco to Honolulu was interesting and notable in that it carried not only the record list of cabin passengers (over 250), but the largest number ever taken to Honolulu, so said the San Francisco office. About 150 stopped at Honolulu. Many were returning residents, including a considerable number of students; but a large tourist list accounted for the unusual influx. Among the Honolulu passengers are several new-comers (who are always welcome), who have come to remain. Mr. F. T. Dillingham comes with his young wife. He is a son of Charles T. Dillingham, many years ago cashier with Castle & Cooke. He joins the force of scientists employed by the Planters' Association, and a fine reputation earned in his line in Massachusetts gives promise of a useful career in Honolulu. Dr. V. E. Collins, after years of good work in South Africa, comes to settle in Honolulu, bringing with him knowledge and skill in surgery as well as in medicine. He expects to join Dr. Humphris. Mr. and Mrs. John M. Dowsett return from the Republican National Convention in Chicago, bringing their son from school. Mr. Kiebahn, Hackfeld's genial representative of their steamship agencies, with his wife, will be welcome after an extended absence. Mr. and Mrs. Bissell, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kimball, the E. A. McInerney, the C. F. Petersons and others return from short trips.

Among the through passengers, perhaps the most notable is the Hon. Wm. M. Shuster, a recent addition to the Philippine Commission, who is returning to his post, taking his wife and family. Dr. Galbraith, who is well-known here, is on a trip around the world, accompanied by the multi-millionaire copper king, Col. W. C. Greene, and his daughter. A number of very interesting Philippine young people are returning from various schools in the United States, where they have been learning, perhaps, something of what Americanism means, and whether there is really any future for their little country. Not so very little, either, for their two thousand islands, containing over 115,000 square miles, support a population of more than 7,000,000, with abundant capacity for 30,000,000, so Mr. Shuster says. Perhaps not the least interesting of those passing through is Prof. Jesse Woods, who is on the way to Japan, Shanghai, Hongkong and Manila to pave the way for an "All-American" baseball team, which is to follow in the fall, and show the Orient how the game is played.

POSSIBILITY FOR NEW INDUSTRY

Meindanis & Alissandratos suggest the establishing of a new industry for Hawaii, that of sponge-fishing. This firm is located at Tarpon Springs, Florida, and, from the following letter, are interested in the Hawaiian sponge beds. The Advertiser has referred frequently to the possibilities for sponge gathering in Hawaiian coast waters, but so far no one has become interested enough to gather any fresh specimens of the Hawaiian sponges to see of what commercial value they may be. Numerous samples of sponges picked up on the sands of the different islands have been sent in to the Advertiser, but invariably these were weather hardened, full of fine sand from being washed about on the beach, and not such as could be submitted to experts for a judgment. Almost invariably, though, they were of good size and shape, the latter an important commercial feature. The letter sent by the sponge merchants to the Chamber of Commerce is as follows: "Tarpon Springs, Fla., May 15, 1908. "Chamber of Commerce, Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands. "Gentlemen: On the 15th of last January we wrote a letter to the Hon. Postmaster of your city, inquiring about the sponge beds, those that exist around the coast of Hawaii Islands; as we are up to date without any answer, we take the liberty to write to you. "We have information that virgin sponge beds exist around those waters, and nobody is engaged in the business as they do not know how to get them. "As our firm is largely interested in the sponge-fishing business, we take the liberty to write you, and assure you that we will be very much obliged to you for any information that you can give us with regards to the sponge beds. "We like to know, about what area they cover; the species of the sponges, and in connection to that we like to say, that a specimen of the sponge of those waters shall enable us better to tell about its merits, by comparison to the sponges of these waters. "We like to call your attention on the following lines. "All this wealth that lays dead in the bottom of the seas belongs by right to the cities of that coast. But it can not be brought into light and be put into circulation unless a diving apparatus has been employed for that purpose. "For the operations of a hooker are always extended within a very limited area, first and foremost on account of the depth. A hooker as a rule can never reach a greater depth than two or three fathoms, while our divers, as it has been many a time demonstrated in Mediterranean sea during their operations, can reach thirty and forty fathoms depth. "Should the sponges of those waters have some commercial value, we feel pretty sure to tell, that the inauguration of the diving apparatus in the sponge business shall open a new field, and be the beginning of a great industry. "We will greatly appreciate any information, and any specimen sent to us. Respectfully yours, "MEINDANIS & ALISSANDRATOS."

TAHITIAN PRIEST CAME WITH FATHER DAMIEN

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—A type of the self-sacrificing missionary priests who have shed lustre on the Catholic church, arrived in San Francisco yesterday by the steamship Mariposa from Tahiti in the Society islands. Father Christian Willimnes and Father Damien, whose martyrdom in the leper colony at Molokai, Hawaiian islands, has given him a place in history, left Belgium together in 1870. Father Damien went to Honolulu and Father Willimnes to Tahiti. Father Willimnes, now Vicar General of Tahiti, reached this city yesterday he had not since been outside of the Society islands.

Though seventy-two years old, the veteran missionary intends to return to the place of his long labors as soon as he has completed his attendance at a conference of the Society of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Belgium. He will be the only surviving member of a party of six of that order which left Belgium in 1870 for the islands of the Pacific.

While in San Francisco Vicar General Willimnes is the guest of Rev. Joseph Guilbert of the Marist Fathers, at the parish house of Notre Dame des Victoires on Bush street. Staying with him there is also Rev. Father M. H. O'Lavery of New Zealand, who, after a sojourn for his health in the summer warmth of Louisville, Ky., (it is the winter season now in Tahiti), will deliver a series of lectures on the native inhabitants of various islands of the Pacific.

Vicar General Willimnes has had the usual experiences of missionary priests in uncivilized lands. He has made himself a part of the life of the natives, eaten the food they have eaten and accommodated himself to the conditions of their existence. For as many as fourteen years, he said yesterday, he had not tasted meat, eating only the native fruits on which the natives of Tahiti lived.

NEW REST HOUSE ON HALEAKALA SUMMIT

W. O. Aiken, in a recent letter to the Promotion Committee, tells something of the plans he has for the rebuilding of the rest house at the summit of Haleakala. At one time there was a very comfortable stone house built there, with bunk, a stove and other conveniences. Vandals who came used all the woodwork of the house for firewood, stole the stove and did other mischief, while the cutting away of the woodwork loosened the iron roof and a gust of wind from the crater tore the iron loose and sent it whooping down the mountainside.

The work Mr. Aiken has set himself out to do is the rebuilding and the refurnishing of this house. In his letter to Mr. Wood, he says: "I have begun operations on the summit house, etc., at last. The material for the work is now up within about four miles of the top, and I expect to close a contract for the work next week, and see it begun. The great difficulty now is water. It has been so dry here for the past few months that the water holes on the mountain are dry, and to get water up there would mean a great deal. Do not know just how it will be solved as yet. I am anxious to have the work started however."

"The county is going to have the trail looked after and kept in shape, so that will mean something. The next thing we want is the road to 'Idlewild' so that we can drive people that far. I have asked the Governor and the Land Commissioner to at least have a good road laid out, and then maybe we can get another step later."

Miss Mary Sutherland, Bryan H. Taylor, Mrs. Bryan H. Taylor, Mrs. Wm. Webster, Miss Elizabeth Webster. Per P. M. S. S. Mongolia, for the Orient, July 6.—Miss A. Janet Gault, Miss A. J. Foster, A. F. THE GOVERNOR IN CONFERENCE

Governor Frear is almost ready to announce the new form of special agreement sale of public lands for homesteads under which the pineapple lands in Koolau will be disposed of, and perhaps the Kapaa lands on Kauai.

The Governor was at work on this matter nearly all day, in consultation and conference most of the time with Land Commissioner Pratt, Attorney General Hemenway and Secretary Mott-Smith.

The form of the special agreement has not yet been fully decided on. It will be very much like the form which was proposed by the Governor before he went to Washington. There will be some changes in it based on suggestions made by Secretary Garfield, and some changes based on suggestions by others.

Suggestions have been received from a great number of sources, and all of these have been considered.

One meeting of this committee lasted from 5 p. m. to 4 p. m. Hereafter Territories will be given six delegates in the convention.

THE APONG CASE.

The hearing on the present branch of the Apong case is nearing a finish. Yesterday forenoon was occupied largely with rebuttal evidence on behalf of Mrs. Apong. The afternoon was occupied principally with argument, Judge Perry taking up most of the time. He went carefully through the evidence of the several witnesses, analyzing their testimony, and seeking to show that it failed utterly to show any of the fraud or misrepresentation or want of consideration which was alleged as a reason for Mrs. Burns withdrawing from the agreement of compromise which was entered into on July 22.

A BROKEN DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition (of disease) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a break-down, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its cause (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same: the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression, spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is VITAL STRENGTH AND ENERGY to prove that an "AFTER" day this may throw off these morbid feelings, and experience be won, certainly secured by a course of the celebrated life-reviving tonic.

THE THERAPY NO. 2. than by any other known combination. So surely as it is taken in accordance with the printed directions accompanying it, will the shattered health be restored, the EXPIRING LAMP OF LIFE LIGHTED UP AFRISH, and a new lease of life be obtained in place of what so lately seemed worn-out, "used up" and "valueless." This wonderful medicine is pure vegetable and innocuous in its nature, its taste—suitable for all constitutions and conditions, in either sex; and it is difficult to imagine a case of disease or derangement, whose main feature is the exhaustion of vitality, which will not be speedily and permanently benefited by this never-failing recuperative essence, which is destined to cast into oblivion everything that had preceded it for this widespread and numerous class of human ailments.
